Original Plans For Season 2:

It's been a while. I think we had a Nova-focused episode. Emperor Doom, not Stark. And the finale was a three-parter wherein the Avengers fought Galactus on Hala.

The very first draft of 'Emperor Stark' was actually a very faithful adaptation of E. Doom, swapping Vision for Wonder Man. Doom!!!

i set up winter soldier obviously but whatever they did with it in the man of action episodes, that was theirs. as was deadliest and powerless i think.

i've said this elsewhere but season 2 was originally designed to end with the Avengers defeating Galactus on Hala, as the Supreme Intelligence abandoned the Kree people.

New Avengers took place AFTER Operation Galactic Storm, the New Avengers were needed because the main team was now on the other side of the universe, not because Kang erased them.

Ultron Unlimited was awkward because we'd just done Skrulls, it felt too soon to have robots impersonating our heroes.

and of course Emperor Stark was always meant to be Emperor Doom, and was written as such.

Our original plan for the end of Season 2 had 'New Avengers' coming after 'Operation Galactic Storm', with the idea being that after the Avengers collapse the Kree wormhole and prevent the destruction of Earth's sun, the event that obliterated Kang's future Earth is prevented. This immediately causes Ravonna to wake from stasis and she goes on a rampage to free Kang, while the Avengers are stuck halfway across the galaxy. When we were told we needed to make changes to Season 2, one of the things we were asked was to do was to decouple 'New Avengers' from the Kree story and to replace Ravonna with The Council of Kangs in that episode to make it seem more stand-alone. As a result, the Ravonna thread was left hanging, so later on when Chris was working on the comics, he decided to address it.

There were several instances during recording where Josh Fine says he got goosebumps on his spine. One of them was when Josh Keaton recorded lines for Spider-man.

Post-Season 3 Plans (Different Ideas From The Two Producers):

According to Chris Yost:

but if there WAS a season 4... the first half would be called UNDER SIEGE. The second half would be INFINITY QUEST. #AvengersEMH

https://twitter.com/yost/status/1451013481344372739

"Under Siege" is a tour of the Marvel U. during our version of Acts of Vengeance. It's Dr. Doom marshaling the greatest super-villains on the planet to put the Avengers on the run, lots of international locations, villains and guest stars. #AvengersEMH

"Infinity Quest" features the Elders of the Universe as they seek out the Infinity Gems in a bid to end this universe and become gods in the next and would scatter the Avengers across the cosmic Marvel U. #AvengersEMH

According To Josh Fine:

Maria Hill's story-line and originally the Dell Rusk plot thread were seeds we planted to grow towards super-human registration and Civil War. That likely would have been at least a part of Season 4 if we had gotten that far.
